

FINANCE CONCENTRATION

Requirements

Primary Concentration

The concentration in finance consists of five advanced courses¹ for a total of 15 credits. Courses are recommended to be selected based on a specialization, as detailed in the next page.

FNGB 7421 Prins of Modern Finance is a prerequisite course for many advanced-level courses and is strongly recommended.

Secondary Concentration

The secondary concentration consists of any three advanced level courses¹ from the finance area, for a total of nine credits.

¹ Courses can be any class with the code FNGB that is a 7000 level or above. A list of courses can be found in the academic areas page.