The on-campus M.S. in Management is on PAUSE and will not have an entering class for the 2020-2021 academic year. Applications for the 2021-2022 academic year will be accepted starting September 1, 2020.

The M.S. in Management is a one-year full-time program offered on campus. The M.S. in Management can also be completed online in one year or 15 months.

Corporate Visits
On campus program students may attend corporate visits as an overlay to classroom work; online program students will visit firms as part of their residency requirement.

Recent visits include:
- American Sustainable Business Council
- Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD)
- Patagonia
- Tesla
- Unilever

Guest Speakers
We also regularly welcome guest speakers into the classroom for both the on campus and online programs. Some recent speakers:
- Hunter Lovins, author and advocate for sustainable development
- Vincent Stanley, author and director of philosophy for Patagonia
- Patrick Struebi, social entrepreneur
- Andrew Winston, consultant, author, and TED speaker

To learn more about the M.S. in Management on campus, visit this website.

To learn more about the M.S. in Management online program, visit this website.