

ACADEMIC ADVISING

Academic advising is a developmental, collaborative, and supportive partnership between students and academic advisers. Together we will explore your academic, career, and life goals, and identify the courses, enrichment activities, engagement opportunities, and resources you may leverage to make informed decisions and achieve results.

Our academic advising team comprises assistant and senior assistant deans along with administrative and graduate assistants who are here to help you throughout your time at the Gabelli School. We partner with faculty, administrators, and other offices across the Fordham community to ensure our students are receiving holistic support and resources central to their academic and personal success.

In keeping with the Jesuit spirit of cura personalis, we believe the development and care of your whole self is vital to thriving academically. We encourage you to be actively engaged in your personal growth while taking advantage of the many opportunities available to you as a Gabelli School student in the heart of New York City.

We have centralized our guidance programs below to help get you started on your academic and personal journey here at Gabelli:

- Graduate Academic Advisers and the Advising Help Desk
- Advising Partnership
- Student Resources and Clubs
- Programs of Study
- Academic Honor Code Guidelines

If you are in need of general assistance after visiting the links above, please contact the Gabelli School of Business Office of Graduate Advising at 212-636-6104 or gsggraduate@fordham.edu (on-campus students) or gsggradonline@fordham.edu (online students).

Lonnie Kussin
Senior Assistant Dean
Office of Graduate Advising and Student Engagement
Gabelli School of Business
lkussin@fordham.edu

Ph.D. Program Advising
businessphd@fordham.edu

To learn more about academic advising, please visit Fordham's graduate academic advising website.