

PASTORAL MENTAL HEALTH COUNSELING (M.A.)

Admissions

Minimum Qualifications

Aptitude

Applicants who maintain a 3.0 or higher GPA during their undergraduate education or a 3.5 or higher GPA during their graduate school education

Career Goals

Applicants who have knowledge, understanding, and interest of the field of Pastoral Counseling

Interpersonal Skills

Applicants who demonstrate strong interpersonal skills including self-awareness, the ability to self-reflect, and a sense of openness and curiosity