RELIGIOUS EDUCATION (M.A.)

This program is offered online.

The Master of Arts degree (M.A.) in religious education degree provides a deepened understanding of core theological disciplines and opportunities to explore the various practices of pastoral ministry. The degree is designed for those already serving in ministry and those preparing to seek employment in ministerial and educational settings. Those seeking personal enrichment through the study of religious education are also welcome. The degree is offered with either a youth and young adult ministry concentration, or generalist concentration.
