

PUBLIC MEDIA (M.A.)

Admissions

Application Requirements

- Official GRE scores are required if an applicant wishes to be considered for GSAS merit-based financial aid. The GRE is not required for admission to the program in general.
- The successful candidate for admission typically has an undergraduate GPA of 3.0 or better.
- Statement of intent that helps us understand your interest in our program (no more than 3 double-spaced pages, submitted via the online application. The statement should respond to the following prompt:
 - “With an ethos of, ‘Media with a mission,’ the Public Media M.A. (PMMA) program focuses on training multi-platform journalists and strategic communication professionals to use media as a force for social change. In what ways does this mission connect to your personal and/or professional interests? What experiences in your undergraduate and/or professional career have prepared you for the PMMA? What personal and/or career objectives will this graduate program help you pursue?”
- Resume/CV (submit via the online application)
- Three letters of recommendation: academic and/or professional (submitted directly by referees via the online application. We suggest that at least one come from a professor on the full-time faculty of your undergraduate institution with whom you have studied.)
- Official degree transcripts confirming prior degree conferral are required for all applicants, regardless of matriculation status. These should be ordered at least one month prior to the application deadline for your program of interest, and should be sent directly to the Office of Admissions (fuga@fordham.edu) via secure electronic delivery.
 - If electronic delivery is not available, please request that your transcripts be submitted directly via post, in a sealed envelope, to: Graduate School of Arts and Sciences, Office of Admissions, Fordham University, 441 E. Fordham Rd., Bronx, NY 10458.
 - Please note: you may upload unofficial copies of your transcripts to your application while the Office of Admissions awaits receipt of your official transcripts.
 - Please ensure that all official transcripts from previously attended post-secondary institutions are submitted in English, or are accompanied by a certified English translation. Transcripts and credentials conversion information is available on the GSAS International Students page.
- English proficiency: International applicants whose native language is not English are required to complete and submit to GSAS prior to matriculation their official scores from the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL). GSAS will also consider a student’s International English Language Testing System (IELTS)—Cambridge English Proficiency Level language testing results.
 - Official TOEFL or IELTS scores should be sent directly by the testing service to the Office of Graduate Admissions, Fordham University, Graduate School of Arts and Sciences – Code # 2259.
 - We will expect our most competitive applicants to have scores above 100 on the TOEFL and 7.5 overall (with 6.5 in each sub-score) or above on the IELTS. Please consult the English Proficiency web page for additional information. A waiver can be requested by emailing fuga@fordham.edu, based on your educational history at a U.S.-based institution and if the official language of your country of origin/nationality is English.

- If your native language is not English, an interview by video may be required.
- One to three writing samples, submitted electronically. These may be analytical (like a paper for a course) or journalistic.
- Up to three samples from a multimedia portfolio. The portfolio offers applicants the opportunity to showcase multimedia, digital, visual, audio, written or web-based production materials as part of the application process (e.g., a website, short film or video, piece of multimedia journalism, audio piece or podcast, a data visualization or motion graphic).
 - If you are a non-native English speaking applicant, you must submit a video submission as one of your portfolio samples demonstrating your English language skills. This should be between 2 and 5 minutes in length and will ideally have you speaking directly to the camera, using either prepared remarks or speaking extemporaneously about a topic of your choice (for instance, your interest in the program or previous experience that has prepared you for the program).

Merit Funding

Highly qualified applicants may qualify for:

- a graduate assistantship package which provides a stipend, a 50% tuition scholarship and an internship at WFUV
- two partial tuition scholarships of $10,000 each
- paid internship at the Donald McGannon Communication Research Center

Elective courses

Students may choose to enroll in an elective in GSAS related to public media and strategic communication (with the PMMA attribute listed below), take additional coursework within the PMMA program, or take a course outside GSAS in the Gabelli School of Business, Fordham Law School, the Graduate School of Education, or the Graduate School of Social Service. These courses should be selected in consultation with your adviser.

Students may also choose to take a PMMA internship: PMMA 6398 or PMMA 6399. Students can do an internship for three credits per semester, for a total of up to six credits for the program. The internship will be chosen by the student, working in conjunction with the graduate director and Fordham University's career center. This internship is to be supervised by an appropriate faculty member, and will involve regular meetings, bi-monthly reports, and a final written summary of the internship experience.

Concentrations

Public Media master's students choose between a concentration in either Multiplatform Journalism or Strategic Communication.

The concentration section of the required curriculum consists of two courses in the concentration area, with a list of courses offered by our department in each area. Students are strongly encouraged, though not required, to choose courses related to their concentration of choice for their electives and when choosing their Fundamentals courses.

Multiplatform Journalism

Multiplatform journalism includes the production and distribution of audio, video, and interactive web content. Concentrators will gain knowledge of the workings and history of commercial and nonprofit media, deep knowledge of journalistic norms and ethical standards, and a complete palette of multimedia reporting skills.

Courses in this group have the PMMJ attribute.
