

HISTORY (M.A.)

Requirements

Master's students are required to complete eight classes (30-32 credits), which can be completed with one year of full-time study (three courses each in the fall and spring, and two courses over the summer). At least six of these courses must be taken within the history department, and students must maintain a "B" (3.0) average in their coursework to qualify for their degree. M.A. students are also required to complete a research paper (40-60 pages), which will be examined by two professors. Each field of study has a different procedure for this final research paper.

Courses should be selected in consultation with the Director of Graduate Studies.

Medieval History Concentration

Students concentrating in medieval history will develop a proposal and research paper through the pro-seminar/seminar sequence.

Course	Title	Credits
One Pro-Seminar Course (see list below)		4
One Seminar Course (see list below)		4
Three Medieval History courses (see list below)		12
Two Modern History, Global History, or Historical Courses Outside of History Department (see list below) <sup>1</sup>		6 to 8
One History elective course <sup>2</sup>		4
Reading Proficiency in one Foreign Language <sup>3</sup>
M.A. Research Paper & Oral Examination
Total Credits		30-32

<sup>1</sup> These courses should encompass a minor field outside medieval history. With the approval of the department, students may take one or both of these courses in another department provided the courses are of a historical nature.

<sup>2</sup> Any four-credit course numbered 5000-8999 with the subject code HIST, not otherwise required for the degree, may fulfill this requirement.

<sup>3</sup> The foreign language requirement includes any relevant ancient or modern language. In consultation with the Director of Graduate Studies, quantitative methods coursework may be considered to fulfill this requirement. Completion of one of the following courses may count as demonstrating reading knowledge of an ancient language: LATN 6521 Latin Palaeography, LATN 5093 Ecclesiastical Latin, GREK 5004 Greek Language and Literature, GREK 5006 Intensive Ancient Greek, GREK 5205 Readings in Greek, and GREK 5300 Advanced Readings in Greek.

More information about the language requirement can be found on our page on the Fordham website.

Modern History Concentration

Students concentrating in modern history will develop (normally within their coursework) a research proposal in the fall semester. In the spring, they will complete the project by taking a research tutorial with a faculty member in which they produce a research proposal and a research colloquium.

Course	Title	Credits
