

INTERNATIONAL DIPLOMA IN HUMANITARIAN ASSISTANCE (ADV CERT)

The International Diploma in Humanitarian Assistance (IDHA) equips mid-career professionals with essential knowledge and skills needed to navigate the complex landscape of humanitarian aid and to drive the humanitarian sector of the future in a more effective, sustainable, and dignified direction.

Students will develop a holistic perspective on global humanitarian issues to propel them to the next level in their careers, helping them create positive social change both in and out of the field.

The IDHA focuses on four core learning objectives that guide students in their professional development (please visit the IIHA website under the "Requirements (p. 1)" tab).

The course is an Advanced Certificate, certified by the New York State Education Department, with the option to enroll for academic credit (transferable to other academic institutions).

Requirements

Course	Title	Credits
HUST 6000	International Diploma in Humanitarian Assistance	8
Total Credits		8

More in-depth information about course offerings can be found on our page on the Fordham website.