

MENTAL HEALTH COUNSELING (M.S.E.)

---

Admissions

Applicants seeking admission to the M.S.E. program in mental health counseling must meet the general requirements for admission to graduate study in the Graduate School of Education and these program-specific admission criteria:

- possess a baccalaureate degree from an accredited college or university
- show evidence of professional promise (personal, interpersonal, and intellectual characteristics appropriate to the profession and the ability to communicate effectively); evidence should be contained in the student's application for admission, or may be sought in an interview with a member of the program faculty, if deemed appropriate
- have earned a minimum graduate and undergraduate grade point average of approximately 3.0 (B or better)
- provide two reference reports
- demonstrate proof of immunization against measles, mumps, meningitis, and rubella