

ADOLESCENCE SPECIAL EDUCATION (M.S.T.)

This program has been replaced by the Teaching Students with Disabilities (M.S.T., All Grades) program and is in the process of phasing out. The program will be retired at the end of the 2025-2026 academic year.

30 credits

NYSED 34664/34671

This clinically-rich master's degree program in adolescence special education prepares teachers for support roles in special education such as consultant teacher, resource room service providers, and integrated co-teachers. The coursework and field experiences develop competencies in understanding principles and policies of special education, and proficiency in assessing and providing evidenced-based intervention and instruction for culturally diverse adolescents with a range of disabilities.

This program leads to New York state certification as a teacher of Students with Disabilities 7-12 Generalist.
