INITIAL TEACHING PROGRAMS (M.S.T.)

Office: Room 1102
Phone: 212-636-6450

The programs of the Division of Curriculum and Teaching (C&T) prepare and develop teachers, at the initial and advanced levels, who are committed to personal and school excellence. The programs are designed to develop teachers’ knowledge, understanding, and skills to enable them to be successful, reflective practitioners.

The Fordham Graduate School of Education is accredited by the National Council for the Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE).

In addition, our programs in early childhood are nationally recognized by the National Association for the Education of Young Children (NAEYC); our elementary education program is nationally recognized by the Association of Childhood Education International (ACEI); our programs in special education are nationally recognized by the Council for Exceptional Children (CEC); our literacy programs are recognized by the International Reading Association (IRA); and our teaching English to speakers of other languages program is recognized by the Teachers of English to Speakers of Other Languages International Association (TESOL). In addition, our adolescence education programs are nationally recognized by the National Council of Teachers of English (NCTE), the National Council of Social Studies (NCSS), the National Council of Teachers of Mathematics (NCTM), and the National Science Teachers Association (NSTA).
