

EDUCATIONAL LEADERSHIP, ADMINISTRATION, AND POLICY (ED.D.)

Requirements Program of Study

Course	Title	Credits
Foundation Courses
ASGE 7449	Introduction to Inquiry and Improvement Science	3
ASGE 7448	Seminar in Ethics and Social Justice	3
ASGE 7721	Applied Quantitative Research Methods	3
ASGE 7731	Applied Qualitative Research Methods II	3
Core Courses
ASGE 7445	Leading Instructional Improvement	3
ASGE 7444	Leading a Learning Organization	3
ASGE 7428	Seminar in Leadership	3
ASGE 7446	Seminar in Organizational Culture, Learning, and Change	3
ASGE 7430	Leadership in Educational Policy and Reform	3
ASGE 7322	Economics and Finance of Education	3
UEGE 6241	Urban Education: Problems and Perspectives	3
ASGE 7436	Transforming Schools, Districts, and Communities	3
ASGE 7460	Community of Inquiry 1: Framing Problems of Practice	1
ASGE 7461	Community of Inquiry 2: Innovative Solutions	1
Dissertation
ASGE 7333	Data Inquiry and Analysis	3
ASGE 7470	Design-Based Methods and Improvement Science in Education	3
ASGE 7471	Implementation Research and Program Evaluation	3
ASGE 8750	Dissertation in Practice Seminar	3
Degree Milestones
ASGE 0901	Comprehensive Assessment	0
ASGE 0900	Permanent Matriculation	0
ASGE 0999	ELAP Proposal Acceptance	0
EDGE 0999	Dissertation Format Review	0
EDGE 0990	Dissertation Oral Defense	0
Total Credits		50

- complete the prescribed program of study
- maintain a minimum overall graduate grade point average of 3.5 (B+ or better)
- complete the first Laboratory of Practice (ASGE 0901) as a qualifying assessment and academic review for permanent matriculation (ASGE 0900)
- complete all four Laboratories of Practice
- complete ASGE 8750 Dissertation in Practice Seminar, the three-credit dissertation seminar offered by the Division of Educational Leadership, Administration, and Policy for Ed.D. candidates, which facilitates student/faculty interaction in the development of a dissertation proposal for the Ed.D. (No more than three credits of dissertation seminar may be applied toward the program total credit requirement.)
- develop and successfully defend on oral examination an original dissertation related to the application of research to the solution of field-specific problems in educational leadership
- complete all requirements for the doctorate within eight years of initial registration for the program

Completion Requirements

To complete the program, students must meet the general degree completion requirements and meet these specific requirements: