

ADMINISTRATION AND SUPERVISION (PH.D.)

Admissions

Applicants seeking admission to the Ph.D. program in administration and supervision must meet the general requirements for admission to doctoral study in the Graduate School of Education and these program-specific requirements:

- have completed at least three years (preferred) of appropriate professional administrative experience
- possess a master's degree or its equivalent from an accredited college or university with a major or concentration in a related area
- have earned a minimum graduate grade point average of approximately 3.5 (B+ or better)
- show evidence of academic ability, effective communication skills, leadership potential, and seriousness of purpose
- demonstrate satisfactory command of oral and written English
- provide two references
- provide proof of immunization against measles, mumps, meningitis, and rubella

Graduate Record Exam (GRE) or Miller Analogies Test (MAT) test scores are optional. Scores may not be older than five years.