

ADMINISTRATION AND SUPERVISION (PH.D.)

Church and Faith-Based School Leadership

57 credits

NYSED 06066

The Division of Educational Leadership, Administration, and Policy offers a Doctor of Education (Ed.D.) degree designed for Pre-K–12 administrators. It offers a Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D.) degree designed for church and religious school leaders.

The Ph.D. requires 12 credits beyond the requirements for the Ed.D. Applicants may apply for either the Ed.D. or the Ph.D., but they cannot apply to both programs.

The primary focus of the program is the preparation and development of researchers, professors, leaders, and key administrators in church-based and faith-based educational institutions, colleges, school systems, and schools. This doctoral program qualifies GSE students to complement their studies with courses in the Graduate School of Religion and Religious Education.
