Admissions

Applicants must meet the general requirements for admission to graduate study in the Graduate School of Education, as well as the following program-specific admissions requirements:

- possess an initial or professional state certificate in teaching or other appropriate and acceptable educational specialty
- have earned a minimum undergraduate and graduate grade point average of approximately 3.0 (B or better)
- submit two references (if currently working in a pre-K-12 building, one reference should be from your current school principal)
- submit proof of immunization against measles, meningitis, mumps, and rubella
- possess a satisfactory command of oral and written English
- have three years of paid, full-time work experience as a classroom teacher, pupil personnel professional (e.g., school counselor), or administrator. Experience that is not full time may be credited on a prorated basis.

Applicants are responsible for ascertaining which NYSED certificate is required for the positions they are seeking.
