AFRICAN STUDIES MINOR

Requirements

The minor consists of six courses, including one required course (AFAM 1600), which, in general, is offered by the African & African American studies department every year.

1. Students may take no more than two electives from any one discipline.
2. Any course with the AFAM subject code or the AFST attribute code may fulfill this requirement.

In addition to the requirements listed above, students must demonstrate proficiency through the intermediate level in a language spoken on the African continent other than English such as Swahili, Twi, Zulu, Arabic, Portuguese, Spanish or French; or another language approved by the director of African Studies.

It is not necessary to study abroad to earn the minor, but credit towards the minor can be earned by studying in Ghana, South Africa, Morocco, or Tanzania. Limited scholarship funds will be available to cover the cost of traveling.
