ECONOMICS MAJOR

Students majoring in economics can design a program of studies that will prepare them for graduate studies in economics, international affairs, public affairs, business, or law, or for directly entering the labor force.

Students who plan to work after graduation from Fordham College will find that many job recruiters are favorably impressed by students who have selected this challenging, liberal arts discipline.

Majors find careers in academics; corporate business, including retailing; financial and consulting services; and the public sector.

Requirements

Students majoring in economics must complete the following 11 courses in economics.
