

CONCENTRATION IN DIGITAL MARKETING

Overview

The digital marketing secondary concentration prepares students to understand the digital marketing landscape, design and execute marketing activities on digital platforms, and optimize customer experiences throughout the customer journey. Students build foundational knowledge and skills toward a systematic understanding of the digital marketing world.