GERMAN MINOR

Requirements
Minors in German must take a minimum of six courses numbered GER 1501 Intermediate German I and higher, to be selected in consultation with the assigned departmental German minor advisor.

Students who place out of GER 1501, GER 1502, or GER 2001 must replace them with upper-level elective courses to receive credit toward the minor. A full list of courses in German can be found here.

All courses counting towards the core language requirement and the major or the minor in a modern foreign language, literature and culture must be taken for credit and a letter grade. When AP or IB credits are awarded as equivalent to the 1502 level in a language, these credits will be applied toward the core language requirement and, as elective credits, toward graduation, but they will not be applied toward the major or the minor in that language.

Study Abroad
Students minoring in German may apply a total of two study abroad courses toward the minor. These courses must be approved by the German minor advisor prior to studying abroad.

Availability
The minor in German is available at Fordham College at Rose Hill and Fordham College at Lincoln Center. Students in Fordham School of Professional and Continuing Studies may minor in German only if they schedules are sufficiently flexible to permit them to take day classes at the Rose Hill or Lincoln Center campuses.
