SPANISH STUDIES MAJOR

Overview
The Spanish studies major is an individualized and interdisciplinary major that allows students to combine their Spanish-language interests with their interests in other fields covered by Fordham's extensive curriculum. All Spanish studies majors will develop an individual course of study with concentration on a particular target area or track in close consultation with the assigned departmental Spanish studies major adviser.

This combination of coursework enables students both to further enhance their fluency and correct grammar usage and to further develop their understanding of Hispanic literature, cultures, and linguistics.
