

MUSIC

Contribution to the Core

The music program offers MUSC 1100 Introduction to Music History, which fulfills the fine arts core requirement. This course has sections that focus on different geographical areas and traditions. It is also available as an Eloquentia Perfecta 1 Seminar. In addition, the department offers American pluralism and global studies courses each year as well as a variety of EP3, EP4, and ICC courses.