Select one of the following three courses:

- CISC 2350 Information and Web Programming
- CISC 2500 Information and Data Management
- CISC 2530 Digital Video and Multimedia

Select four additional courses from one of the following groups:

- New Media and Information
- Art, Text, and Design
- New Media and Commerce

1 The list of courses that apply toward each of these options are the same as those required for the concentrations under the New Media and Digital Design Major. One course normally counting for the Ethics requirement of the NMDD major may apply toward this requirement.
