SOCIAL WORK MAJOR

The Bachelor of Arts in Social Work major at Fordham University will prepare you to make a meaningful difference in people’s lives as a generalist social work practitioner. Mirroring the strength of our nationally ranked M.S.W. program, our B.A.S.W. degree features a variety of learning experiences: dynamic classes; hands-on fieldwork education; and guidance and support from a faculty adviser. Our diverse community of compassionate students and faculty round out the stimulating educational environment of the Graduate School of Social Service. With our B.A.S.W. degree, you’ll graduate with the skills and knowledge you’ll need to promote human rights, social justice, and individual and community well-being.

Offered at our campuses in Manhattan and Westchester, The Bachelor’s of Arts in Social Work (BASW) degree is equivalent to the Bachelor’s in Social Work (BSW) and is accredited by the Council on Social Work Education (CSWE).

Gregory Acevedo, Director of the BASW program at 212-636-7166 or gacevedo@fordham.edu.

Requirements

Students are expected to complete the 33 credits of the major within a two-year period, either on a full- or part-time basis. The major consists of eight required courses of three credits each, and a 600-hour, yearlong field practicum and integrative seminar of nine credits beginning in September.

Following admission, students complete the social work program in two years. Depending on their full-time or part-time status, students may take courses in addition to social work courses.

Sample Curriculum

The coursework is spread across four semesters. You can start your B.A.S.W. program starting in the Fall or Spring semester.

The first year consists of four classroom courses and faculty advising, and the second year consists of four classroom courses, the Field Practicum and Integrative Seminar, and faculty and field advising.

SOWK 2600 Introduction to Social Work and Social Welfare must be taken before beginning the remaining courses in the curriculum.

Regardless of when you enter the program, you must complete the first year’s four classroom courses before entering the Fieldwork Practicum.
