² Theatre majors concentrating in design and production must substitute THEA 3920 History of Theatre Design for any of the two required theatre history courses. Students pursuing other concentrations may request permission to take THEA 3920 History of Theatre Design in place of one of the other two theatre history courses.

Availability

Students who attend study abroad theatre programs may apply certain courses to their theatre major, and should consult with an advisor prior to attending a study abroad program.

The major in theatre is available at Fordham College at Lincoln Center. Students in Fordham's School of Professional and Continuing Studies may major in theatre only if they receive the approval of their advising dean and/or department, and their schedules are sufficiently flexible to permit them to take day courses at the Lincoln Center campus.

Fordham College at Lincoln Center students: The requirements above are in addition to those of the Core Curriculum.

Professional and Continuing Studies students: The requirements above are in addition to those of the PCS Core Curriculum and any additional electives that may be required to earn a minimum of 124 credits.
